Fund Manager's Comment: Infrastructure remains an important pillar of India growth story. However, we continue to align our portfolio with a strong balance sheet coupled with reasonable valuations. We believe that we are at the cusp of a capex cycle which will last for the coming 3-4 years. Hence the portfolio is more tilted towards companies which will benefit out of the capex cycle.

Fund Manager's Comment (Equity Schemes):

After a strong rally in the last couple of months, investors in the equity markets stand at a key juncture assessing the direction of the market ahead. On the global front, the Fed is clearly focussed on lowering the inflation closer to its 2% long-term goal by prioritising inflation control over growth - with the same hinting towards a 75 bps rate hike in its September meet. A similar situation remains for the European Central Bank which has remained hawkish - in the light of elevated consumer prices due to its high dependency on Russia and Ukraine for gas and food articles, respectively.

With regards to our domestic economy, the RBI has done a tremendous job and India is actually one of the bright spots in the emerging space. Moreover, the global slowdown including China slowdown has resulted in lower commodity and crude oil prices which are advantageous to India. Improvement in macro fundamentals and overall strong corporate earnings are other levers that are at work thus making India a convincing story.

While India is not immune to the global developments, it has shown strong resilience so far. The recent rally seen was driven majorly by sectors which focussed on the domestic consumption story or domestic discretionary spends (with festival season support) be it consumer goods, automobiles, consumer durables or real estate. In addition, the banking sector has done well and the prospects are bright with asset quality issues subsiding and expectations of credit growth picking up.

Given the global scenario, the external side of the economy will be under pressure as long as global central banks remain hawkish. However, domestic indicators especially on the rural front have a strong chance to recover with a pick up in monsoon.

We remain positive on sectors covering infrastructure and domestic consumption including consumer durables, electricals, realty, autos. Stocks in the mid-cap space continue to remain attractive in terms of growth and valuation. We continue to focus on companies with double-digit volume growth, pricing power, brand equity and corporate governance.

How to read Factsheet

Fund Manager : An employee of the asset management company such as a mutual fund or life insurer, who manages investments of the scheme. He is usually part of a larger team of fund managers and research analysts.

Application Amount for Fresh Subscription : This is the minimum investment amount for a new investor in a mutual fund scheme.

Minimum Additional Amount : This is the minimum investment amount for an existing investor in a mutual fund scheme.

Yield to Maturity : The Yield to Maturity or the YTM is the rate of return anticipated on a bond if held until maturity. YTM is expressed as an annual rate. The YTM factors in the bond's current market price, par value, coupon interest rate and time to maturity.

SIP : SIP or systematic investment plan works on the principle of making periodic investments of a fixed sum. It works similar to a recurring bank deposit. For instance, an investor may opt for an SIP that invests Rs. 500 every 15th of the month in an equity fund for a period of three years.

NAV : The NAV or the net asset value is the total asset value per unit of the mutual fund after deducting all related and permissible expenses. The NAV is calculated at the end of every business day. It is the value at which the investor enters or exits the mutual fund.

Benchmark : A group of securities, usually a market index, whose performance is used as a standard or benchmark to measure investment performance of mutual funds, among other investments. Some typical benchmarks include the Nifty, Sensex, BSE200, BSE500, 10 - Year Gsec.

Entry Load : A Mutual fund may have a sales charge or load at the time of entry and/or exit to compensate the distributor/agent.

Entry load is charged at the time an investor purchases the units of a mutual fund. The entry load is added to the prevailing NAV at the time of investment. For instance, if the NAV is Rs. 100 and the entry load is 1%, the investor will enter the fund at Rs. 101

Note: SEBI, vide circular dated June 30, 2009 has abolished entry load and mandated that upfront commission to distributors will be paid by the investor directly to the distributor, based on his assessment of various factors including the service rendered by the distributor.

Exit Load : Exit load is charged at the time an investor redeems the units of a mutual fund. The exit load is reduced from the prevailing NAV at the time of redemption. The investor will receive redemption proceed at net value of NAV less Exit Load. For instance if the NAV is Rs. 100 and the exit load is 1% the investor will receive Rs. 99.

Modified Duration : Modified duration is the price sensitivity and the percentage change in price for a unit change in yield

Standard Deviation : Standard deviation is a statistical measure of the range of an investment's performance. When a mutual fund has a high standard deviation, it means its range of performance is wide, implying greater volatility.

Sharp Ratio : The Sharp Ratio, named after its founder, the Nobel Laureate William Sharpe, is a measure of risk-adjusted returns. It is calculated using standard deviation and excess return to determine reward per unit of risk.

Beta : Beta is a measure of an investment's volatility vis-a-vis the market. Beta of less than 1 means that the security will be less volatile than the market. A beta of greater than 1 implies that the security's price will be more volatile than the market.

AUM : AUM or assets under management refers to the recent / updated cumulative market value of investments managed by a mutual fund or any investment firm.

Holdings : The holdings or the portfolio is a mutual fund's latest or updated reported statement of investments/securities. These are usually displayed in terms of percentage to net assets or the rupee value or both. The objective is to give investors an idea of where their money is being invested by the fund manager.

Nature of Scheme : The investment objective and underlying investments determine the nature of the mutual fund scheme. For instance, a mutual fund or growth fund. Likewise, a mutual fund that aims at capital preservation by investing in debt markets is a debt fund or income fund. Each of these categories may have sub-categories.

Rating Profile : Mutual funds invest in securities after evaluating their creditworthiness as disclosed by the rating. A depiction of the mutual fund in various investments based on their ratings becomes the rating profile of the fund. Typically, this is a feature of debt funds.
